ACHIEVEMENTS

Over these years, I have cultivated a strong passion for self-learning, particularly in key backend technologies and other areas that contribute to organizational development, such as project and business management. I have also educated individuals in higher education on topics including technology, customer service, and communication, both in face-to-face and virtual settings.

Furthermore, I have honed my ability to manage work effectively in remote environments. My professional training in communication sciences has equipped me with the skills to communicate efficiently with team members, stakeholders, and non-technical staff.

I would be delighted to discuss my profile further and contribute to the growth x of our organization.
